“The Yanks Are Coming, Over There, Over There”

December 15, 2018

On November 11, the United States along with many nations around the world marked the 100th anniversary of the end of World War I. From Fort Worth, more than 80 Jewish men served in uniform. Their names are etched in a century-old marble honor roll, a landmark recently restored.

Dr. Haber, physician and author, returns to the Billy W. Sills Center for the Archives on Saturday, December 15, to offer brief glimpses into the lives and experiences of these extraordinary young men - - some poignant, some tragic, all of them heroic.

Join us December 15 for a morning of learning, fun, and fellowship.

Join us for coffee and “nibbles”
