

Arlington Genealogical Society Presents

Your guide to Special Collections at the University of Texas, Arlington

By

Brenda McClurkin

What to expect when you come to Special Collections to do research, where to park, and highlights of genealogical interest from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram Collection, other photograph holdings, maps, and manuscript collections.

January 14, 2014

6:30 p.m. in the Community Room
George W. Hawkes Central Library

Brenda McClurkin is the department head of The University of Texas at Arlington Libraries Special Collections and Archives. Brenda has been with Special Collections for 11 years, is a certified archivist, author and past president of the Society of Southwest Archivists.

The public is welcome.

<http://www.rootsweb.ancestry.com/~txags/>