

BIRDVILLE HISTORIAN

VOLUME 15

ISSUE 1

February 2011

Richland Hills

Come join Birdville Historical Society as we welcome
Richland Hills Historical Society

We will meet at 6:30 pm on Tuesday, February 15th at 6:30 PM. Betty Wilson from the Richland Hills Historical Society will speak to us about the city history.

Richland Hills along with Haltom City, Watauga, North Richland Hills and Smithfield made up the Community of Birdville in the early 1800's. Each one has gone on to become it's own incorporated city and now make up a large part of Northeast Tarrant County.

Meet us in the Haltom City Library Board Room at 4809 Haltom Road in Haltom City, Texas

Birdville Museum Update

Attached are a few photos of the progress of the museum! We are planning for a Grand Opening date of May 5, 2011

If you have relatives or friends who would like to bequeath items to the Birdville Historical Society, we are recognized by the IRS as an official 501©3 organization and all donations will be tax deductible. In the case of a death in your family, you can be assured that any donations made in memory or in honor of your loved one in the way of photos, documents or historical objects, will be preserved in the best way possible. This is one way to insure that the work of preservation will continue in Birdville and would be a great time for you to contribute to the construction of the museum and move of the collection to our new museum space.

If you have not had opportunity to join or pay your dues for 2011, please do so at this time. Mail your checks or contributions to Birdville Historical Society, P.O. Box 14246, Haltom City, Texas 76117
