

THE U.S. ENTERS THE GREAT WAR: 100 YEAR ANNIVERSARY

April 8, 2017— 1:00 p. m. to 2:00 p.m.

Veterans Memorial Park

The North Texas World War I Centennial Commemoration Group will present a commemoration of the U.S. entry into the First World War and how that event affected North Texas.

The event will begin with jazz music of the era presented by the "Jazz Monsters." Living history soldiers will also be present to give visitors a sense of the time in 1917. Guest speakers Judge Glen Whitley and Councilman Zim Zimmerman will present their insights of the war and proclamations from the County and City. All activities will take place at the Veterans Memorial Park at 4120 Camp Bowie Blvd., Fort Worth.

Parking:

Arlington Heights United Methodist Church has been kind enough to let us use their parking lot during the commemoration. The church is next to the park.
