For more than 15 years, Josh has been an active genealogist, tracing the histories of families across the globe. Joshua can be seen on Genealogy Roadshow (PBS), Who Do You Think You Are? (NBC and TLC) and is the Lead Genealogist for Findmypast.com, a worldwide leader in online family history.

SEMINAR TOPICS
 (topics are subject to change)

Climbing in Unknown Territory – Beginning Your Genealogy Just starting in genealogy? Come learn the best tools and techniques to start climbing your family tree. Learn basic research methods, record types, and learn a few tips on how to keep your material organized.

Bridging the Gap: Finding Ancestors in the United States between 1780 and 1830 Have you lost an ancestor between 1780 and 1830? Often connecting our ancestors to colonists can be quite a task, learn how to employ probate, land, census, tax, and other compiled records to help bridge the gap.

Evaluating and Documenting Online Sources Just because a web site or database looks nice, does not mean its content can be trusted. Learn how to evaluate the information you find online, and also how to properly cite those sources in your own records.

On and Off the Net: Vital Records Birth Marriage, and Death records are a key component to any genealogist's search. Learn how these records are kept and how you can access them offline or online.
