Don't Miss the NFWHS Christmas Party!

Make plans to attend the NFWHS annual Christmas party at the Cattleman's Restaurant on December 13th at 7pm.

You pay for your meal but the Fun is Free!

We will have a Chinese Christmas Gift Exchange.
If you wish to participate bring a gift valued at $15.
See You There!

REMEMBER!

If you are looking for a unique gift for Christmas visit the Stockyards Museum Gift Shop! We also have Leanin' Tree Christmas Cards.

As we celebrate the holidays, let's remember those in the military that can't be home for the holidays.

If you are making year-end charitable donations please consider the North Fort Worth Historical Society. And mention it to your friends, relatives and employers. Every dollar helps.

Merry Christmas Y'all!

THE PRESIDENT'S CORNER

By Tom Wiederhold

I hope everyone had a blessed Thanksgiving. Can you believe we are heading into 2013 already? The year has flown by. We have several projects that we are working on and once they are completed you will see a few changes in the museum. We will keep you posted on the progress so you can come by and see what has been done.

I hope to see you at the Christmas Party. Have a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year! - Tom

NFWHS News from Teresa Burleson

On November 23rd, Debi Carl, John Pugh and Skip and Marty Humphrey donned their vintage 1860's attire and acted as tour guides in the Tarrant County Courthouse. They have received rave reviews and the Tarrant County Historical Society wants them to come back and do it again.

On December 1st, Skip and Marty Humphrey and Debi Carl, John Pugh and Debbie Clark will get dressed up in vintage clothes to be greeters for the Snowball Express in the Stockyards. Beginning Friday, Nov. 30, more than 1,700 children and spouses of fallen military will once again travel to North Texas, arriving via American Airlines for Snowball Express – an all-expense-paid visit to the Dallas/Fort Worth area. Snowball Express is an all-volunteer nonprofit organization established in 2006 with the mission of bringing hope, joy and new memories to children who have lost a parent on active duty since Sept. 11, 2001.

The Fort Worth Cats deserve a spot in the Stockyards Museum. If anyone has an item such as a ball, bat, glove, jersey or other Cats items, and would like to donate or loan them to the museum, please contact Teresa Burleson, 817-625-5082.

A big thank you to all of the volunteers! We could not do it without you! You are very much appreciated.

Would you like to volunteer on Wednesdays? Call the museum and get the details!
