“Writing about my ancestors made me a better genealogist”

By Judy Everett Ramos

When Judy joined a group of genealogists tasked with writing one ancestor article each week for an entire year, she had to look for each ancestor’s personal story, fill in gaps and get around brick walls, and give everyone their own personality. Judy will show you how to go beyond names, dates, and places to bring your ancestors’ stories to life using easy and practical tips you can use immediately.

DAY: Tuesday, July 31, 2018

TIME: 6:30 p.m. Tandy Auditorium

Central Branch, FW Library, 500 W. 3rd St.

Parking meters are free after 6 p.m. The 3rd St. Garage is free for 2 ½ hours—just validate your ticket in the library. Come at 6 p.m. for coffee.

Judy began genealogy research in the sixth grade. She is a member of 11 lineage organizations, including National Society Daughters of the American Revolution, National Society Sons and Daughters of Antebellum Planters 1607-1861, and Descendants of Texas Rangers. In 2016, Judy received the Mamie Wynne Cox Historical Research Award from the Daughters of the Republic of Texas for her article on early Texas history. In 2013, she received the national Spirit of 1812 award for her series of genealogy articles about the War of 1812. Judy is a Corpus Christi, Texas native, but she has traced her roots around the globe. Judy is a former newspaper reporter and currently works in public relations and freelance writing when she is not working on genealogy.
