

FORT WORTH GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

In Collaboration with the Fort Worth Library
Presents

Mark Lucas-Kelly

On

History of Lucas Funeral Home in Grapevine

Mark will not only present some history of the Lucas family and how they founded their business, but will also cover some of the early practices of funeral homes and just how different it is today.

DAY: Tuesday, February 26, 2019

TIME: 6:30 p.m. Tandy Auditorium

Central Branch, FW Library, 500 W. 3rd St.

Parking meters are free at 6 p.m. The Sundance Garage on 3rd St. is free for 2 ½ hours with validation at Library desk. Come at 6:00 for Refreshments.

Mark Lucas-Kelly is part of the Lucas Family, a sixth-generation funeral home family with roots in Grapevine, TX dating back to the late 1850's and Fort Worth as of 1929. Mark returned to Texas a few years ago after living in the Western United States for 23 years, including a brief stint across the country in Vermont. Before returning to the family business Mark taught public school History, Government and coached Mock Trial. He also managed two public radio stations, helped build a world class resort in Moab, UT, ran a major University Student Newspaper in Seattle, WA and was an actor in L.A. along with a few other endeavors. He is a graduate of the University of Texas at Austin.

Currently Mark directs marketing efforts and community outreach for Lucas, Robertson Mueller Harper and Blessing Funeral Homes and is a Celebrant for families with no church affiliation that need someone to honor their loved one's life.

WWW.TXFWGS.org