Follow The Money

Can't find an elusive ancestor, but you think he should be there. Or you found him, but you need more details to "flesh him out." You've tried it all (you think?) Come hear Lora describe alternative resources for finding documentation of ancestors, where they lived, and spent their money.

DAY: Tuesday, July 30, 2019

TIME: 6:30 p.m. Tandy Auditorium

Central Branch, FW Library, 500 W. 3rd St.

Parking meters are free at 6 p.m. The Sundance Garage on 3rd St. is free for 2 ½ hours with validation at Library desk. Come at 6:00 for Refreshments.

Lora Pallatto was born in Casper, Wyoming. She grew up in Norwalk, Connecticut, and graduated from the University of Connecticut in 1975 with a degree in English specializing in grammar and dialects. She has lived in Connecticut (25 years) Massachusetts (9 years) and California (26 years) and has recently retired with her husband John to Lewisville, Texas.

Lora's ancestors arrived in America before 1840. Her husband's family all arrived after 1840. Like everyone, her ancestry includes the famous and the infamous, but mostly regular folks.

Lora is a member of New England Historic Genealogical Society, Mid-Cities Genealogical Society, Connecticut Society of Genealogists, Rhode Island Genealogical Society, California Genealogical Society, and DAR.
