Patti Huff Smith comes from a marketing career as well as sales and seminar facilitator with author Zig Zigar. She and her husband Gary worked over 20 years in church leadership positions and led marriage seminars. They've been married 34 years with 4 adult children and live in Coppell, Texas.

Patti grew up in an Air Force family of 7. Her first attempt at genealogy was to trace her military ancestors. That passion continues today with her interest in DNA studies.

Currently, Patti is Director of Volunteer Coordination in the Dallas Genealogical Society, and holds memberships in Navarro County, Hill County and Central Texas Genealogical Societies along with the Texas State Genealogical Society and Coppell Historical Society. Patti also enjoys lecturing on genealogical topics including Beginning Genealogy, Locating War Records, Discover Ancestors Through Social Media, DNA and GEDmatch.com.
