Discover Genealogical Treasure Using Historic U.S. Maps

Maps provide a valuable tool for understanding the world as it was when our ancestors were living. Explore a variety of resources for finding and using historic maps. A few of the maps to be discussed during this presentation will include Fire Insurance maps, county boundaries, Public Land Survey System maps, and land grants.

DAY: Tuesday, July 26, 2022

TIME: 6:30 p.m.

ONLINE ZOOM MEETING.....Click link below before 6:30 pm.

HANNAH KUBACAK is a Waco native with a life-long interest in family stories. She has worked professionally in genealogy for eight years, and as the reference librarian for the Waco Genealogy Center since 2015. She previously taught genealogy continuing education classes at McLennan Community College and worked for the Chickasaw Nation's Holisso Research Center in Sulphur, Oklahoma. She has published multiple articles illustrating ways to use maps in genealogical research for Stirpes and Heart of Texas Records. Her areas of research include the Five Civilized Tribes, Texas, and the Southeastern United States; however, as a reference librarian, she has assisted individuals researching their ancestors across the map.
