Genealogy Announcements

August Monthly Meeting

Subject: The Archives of the University of North Texas

Speaker: Michelle Mears

Michelle Mears, Archivist of the University of North Texas, discussed the contents of the Archives of the University which are of interest to genealogists. These principally consist of the University Archives, the Rare Book and Texana Collections, Government Documents, and the Microforms Collection. The storage locations are either the Willis Library or the University Storage Facility.

The Willis Library is located on the UNT campus at 1506 W. Highland, Denton, Tx 76203-5017. Visitors to the library must obtain a free visitor's parking pass from one of the several guard stations prior to parking. Offices for all of the personnel are located inside the library.

The telephone numbers and hours of operation for the various components of the Archives are:

University Archivist	(940) 565-2766	8-12 AM 1-5 PM M-F
Rare Book and Texana Collection	(940) 565-2769	8-12 AM 1-4 PM M-f

Temporary Closure of Family History Center

The Family History Center on Alta Mesa Blvd. will be closed from September 6 through 21 for redecorating. It will reopen at 9:00 AM on Monday, September 22.

Image on the first page

The sign above Exchange Avenue was erected in 1913. It marks the beginning of the Fort Worth Stockyards. The panorama format was obtained by cropping an image which shows much more of the street and surrounding buildings. Copywrite 2008 by James W. Norris
