FWGS will be ordering a shipment of books from Arphax Publishing Co. to be sold at our August 14th Summer Seminar. We will be selling the books at the regular price and the Society will make a commission on every sale. This is the Family Maps series of Land Patent Books and the Texas Land Survey Maps series.

If you have been wanting to purchase one or more of these books, why not help the Society out and buy yours during our seminar. This will save you from paying shipping and handling costs. We must know which books you want so that we can be sure to order them. Please only order books you intend to purchase as we must pay to ship back all unsold books.

You can look to see what is available and the prices on their website. <http://arphax.com/>

Please contact Rob Yoder to reserve books or to ask questions. RGYoder@juno.com or 817-710-4215

BYUTV

A resource which is not widely appreciated is the genealogy program "Questions and Ancestors" which BYUTV broadcasts. In late July, they rebroadcast a program which discussed the ongoing digitization of all of the Family History documents (microfilm and microfiche) which owned by the Family History library. The site is generally described as Granite Mountain. While the expected life of the film is in excess of 300 years, finding a given source document can be difficult. Hence, there is a need for getting the resources online. The expected project end date mentioned in the program was 2013 to 2014.

BYUTV is presented on channel 374 of Directv. I would expect rest of the cable and wireless services to carry this station as well.

Past Genealogical Events

July General Meeting

Dona Kruse described how to use the search engine for the Genealogy Bank. Tom Kellam gave us a refresher course on using the the new microfilm and microfiche readers which are located in the Genealogy Department at the Fort Worth Library. These readers can obtain scans which are superior to the prior machines.

Access to Genealogy Bank is free for citizens of Fort Worth. Others may access the site at no charge from PCs in the Central Library and all of the branch libraries or they may purchase a license (around $100).
