APRIL GENERAL MEETING

Our April meeting will be Tuesday, April 25, 2017 in the Tandy Auditorium of the Central Branch Library. Thomas Morton, instructor & genealogist, will present: "Are You Descended From Kings?" Time will be 6:30 p.m. - 7:45 p.m.

Refreshments begin at 6:00 p.m., with the meeting starting at 6:30.

Whether we admit it or not, don't we all wish we had Royalty in our line?

Tom will show you the names that are likely to lead you to royalty. (Tom has helped more than 150 people find they are descended from kings & queens.) He will show you easier steps to find royalty in your family history and then download the files into your Family Tree Maker file. Tom will then show you how to publish your findings in a book for friends and relatives. You will need to be familiar (at least a basic understanding) with Family Tree Maker and Ancestry.com for this part of the discussion.

THOMAS MORTON is a retired professional engineer from Canada. He has been doing genealogical research for more than 50 years and has more than 84,000 people in his Family Tree Maker database. He has published 50 family history books for friends & family and has traced more than 150 people back to kings, queens and emperors.

Thomas currently is a "Silver Frog" & teaches genealogy courses for the TCU Extended Education Program.

FW LIBRARY NEWS

April Brings a Closure

Don't Forget: All FW

Libraries will be closed for the EASTER HOLIDAY on Sunday, April 16th. All hours resume on Monday, April 17, 2017.

MARCH FWGS MEETING

Our March General Meeting was well attended by almost forty persons. The draw was to hear Ila Fichtner-Johnson speak on News-papers. Ila shared examples of what can be gleaned in articles & obituaries, then gave examples of web sites to find digital versions of papers. Besides the most familiar subscription sites such as America's Genealogy Bank (which is free in the FW Library & with your FW residential library card at home) and Newspapers.com (which is free at Family History Centers), she also mentioned some less popular. These were free: Library of Congress' Chronicling America project, Small Town Papers.com, The Olden Times.com, and Free Newspaper Archives.com. Don't confuse this last one with Newspaper Archive.com which is a subscription site for $9.95/month.

The NY Times has a subscription site and free archive with papers back to 1851-1922. The free section is called TimesMachine.

PARKING IS EASY!

Meters are FREE at 6 PM and you can always park FREE in the 3rd Street Garage (only a block E. from the library door) for 2 ½ hours with your ticket validated at the library desk.

EDITOR: Last month, I ran a story on Pioneer Families of Tarrant County (PFoTC), a Heritage group within FWGS. I heard from Michael Patterson, who is a regular contributor to Footprints, a FWGS member, and an expert on early families in North East Tarrant County. He mentioned another important resource that he uses regularly for early tax records for Tarrant County that is available easily and FREE. It is the Fort Worth Library and their web site. Read on for more.....

Tarrant County, Texas Tax Records Available

Tarrant County tax records are available online for tax years 1850-1880 through the FWL and their Digital Archives Collections. Here is the link:

<http://www.fortworthtexasarchives.org/cdm/landingpage/collection/p16084coll13> Be sure to read about the collection, to do a better search. The first year of tax records were actually recorded by the Navarro county tax collector, as Tarrant county was still part of Navarro and not yet completely organized. Thanks, Michael for the tips!

Who Do You Think You Are?

The TLC network continues the run of the highly successful TV show Who Do You Think You Are? currently in season 9. It shows on Sunday nights at 9 p.m. (Check your listings)

This season has featured Courtney Cox, Julie Bowen, Jennifer Gray, Noah Wyle, & Jessica Biel. Courtney Cox had one of the longest lineages that I can remember since the show started. Ultimately, she links back to William the Conqueror, with several royal lines along the way and much political intrigue, murders, and family feuds. Her episode is available to view on TLC or this app. Others will be available soon. <https://www.tlco.com/who-do-you-think-you-are/> Still to come are Smokey Robinson, Liv Tyler, & John Stamos.

On the same night as WDYTIA, TLC has another very interesting show, also sponsored by ANCESTRY. It is LONG LOST FAMILY and deals with 2 researchers who were adoptees and have successfully found their birth families. These 2 researchers each take on a case of either a birth parent or an adoptee searching to reunite and carry it through to a meeting. Tips on how to trace down clues from remembrances or records can help genealogists in our research too. Find some older episodes here: <https://www.tlc.com/tv-shows/long-lost-family/>

100th Anniversary of World War I in US

April 6, 1917 The U.S. joined its allies--Britain, France, and Russia--to fight in World War I. Under the command of Major General John J. Pershing, more than 2 million U.S. soldiers fought on battlefields in France. Expect exhibits in Metroplex.
