Special Notice about May Meeting

Due to Memorial Day, the Fort Worth Public Library will be closed on Monday, May 27th. Therefore, the Regular Monthly Meeting will be held at Lee Angle Photography Studio, 2900 Photo Avenue, Fort Worth, at 7:00 pm. It is located off of Vickery Blvd and just west of University Drive. Mark Angle will be discussing "Photo Reproduction and Restoration: New Techniques and Traditional Approaches." Parking is available around the building. Please bring your own chair.

The April Meeting

On April 29th, the FWGS held its monthly meeting at the Fort Worth Public Library -- Central. President Ellie Hutcheson described the Society's financial condition and the need to reduce expenditures. Vice President Don Crews moderated a discussion in which a number of Society members shared their research experiences. Among the stories were tales of a coincidental meeting of a distant relative at a courthouse, of a discovery that most pre-1900 cemeteries in Galveston are gone because of the flood, and of a successful effort to identify a soldier in a photograph. Several members brought up genealogy topics that they would like to have addressed in future meetings. President Ellie Hutcheson announced that the Society's tour of the Tarrant County Courthouse will be held on June 13th.

There were 40 members and guests in attendance.

Book Available for Purchase

The Society has recently received a donation of a dozen copies of "Bartholomew's Children: A Southern Ball Family" by Henry Fletcher Ball, Jr. To purchase a copy of this book for $30.00 from the Society, please contact Ellie Hutcheson.
