Upcoming Regular Monthly Meeting

Monday (April 25, 2005)

Fort Worth Public Library - Chappell Meeting Room*

6:30 pm: Coffee      7:00 pm: Program

On Monday, March 28th, our speaker will be Shirley Apley, senior librarian at the Fort Worth Public Library, Genealogy Department. Her presentation will be: Albion's Seed: Four British Folkways in America, Part II. Shirley previously presented a program on the Puritans and Cavaliers who arrived between 1629 and 1675. She is back by special request to tell us about the last two mass migrations: Quakers from 1675 to 1725 and borderland English, Scots and Irish from 1717 to 1775. Are we still influenced socially, morally and politically by these early settlers? Come listen and you be the judge.

*Parking is free on the meters around the Library after 6:00 pm and in the Sundance Parking Lot on 3rd and Taylor after 7:00 pm.

Up Coming Community Genealogy Events

Civil War Monument Dedication

During the spring of 2004 three Colleyville old-timers decided to erect a Community Civil War Veterans Memorial. On it, they planned to honor not only the men who left this area to serve in the Confederate army, but all the veterans of both armies who moved here in the years after 1865. A website and the monument located on Pleasant Run Road at Pleasant Run Baptist Church are the results of their decision.

The completed project will consist of a marble dedicatory stone and three upright granite tablets, each five feet tall, two feet wide, and six inches thick, on which will be engraved the veterans' names.

A formal marker dedication service will be on Saturday morning, June 11, 2005, at 9 a.m., at Pleasant Run Baptist Church in Colleyville, Texas.
