Genealogy Announcements

January Monthly Day Workshop

We had a limited turnout of members who are researching Virginia. However, the supplied list of counties and their foundation dates was quite valuable. I am descended from Joseph Callaway who came to Virginia in the early 1700s. My direct ancestors left with Daniel Boone for Kentucky; however, there are a number of Callaway descendants who still live near Roanoke. They all live in or near the unincorporated town of Callaway, Va.

January Monthly Meeting

Shirley Apley presented an interesting description of the life of person who may have been Bessie Williams Joyce. We say may because some evidence points to a completely different name. In any case, Bessie was most famous for the number of times that she escaped from the old city jail. It really is a wonder that the jail did not collapse.

McCraw Family Association Reunion
