Past FWGS Events

September Monthly Meeting

Four members of the Tarrant County Historical Commission:

Marvin Wilson from Arlington
Cindy Wilson-Arrick from Fort Worth
Betty Porter from Haltom City
Jo Pirtle from Forest Hill

shared information about Tarrant County History and the Archive resources.

Marion Day Mullins Project

Rob Yoder reports the status as:

PHASE I: (Transcribing the originals to a form suitable for publishing on a CD)
There are 6 volunteers proofreading the last 6 files.

PHASE III (Footprints): (Transcribing marriage records from Footprints)
One loyal volunteer is transcribing the final county.
6 segments have been proofread and await indexing.
9 segments are assigned to 4 volunteers for proofreading.
31 segments have not yet been assigned to proofreaders.

Restoring Old Photographs

Janine Smith (the speaker at the August General Meeting) of Landailyn Research and Restoration is proud to announce that she will donate 10% of the price of the purchase of any FWGS member back to the society. She will even honor recommendations by members to non-members or family. Just mention the FWGS 10% offer when you purchase a service. This offer extends through the end of 2009. Contact Janine at: <http://www.landailyn.com/> or call (817) 930-0120 for an appointment.

Aledo Area Pictorial History

Susan Karnes (a member of the East Parker County Genealogical and Historical Society) announced that she is compiling information for a book about this area. People who are interested in assisting this work should contact Susan at 817 441-7810.
