November General Meeting

Don't forget our next meeting is the week of Thanksgiving, so plan ahead now. Finish your shopping early and be ready to meet on Tuesday night, November 24th at 6:30 to hear our own V P, Terri Meeks, tell us about those "skeletons" in your family tree. She titles it: "Skeletons in Your Closet?" Terri tells us that some of those family stories may not be totally true or that mysterious ancestor may have had a good reason for disappearing. She will use case studies to illustrate. See you at the Tandy Auditorium of the Central Branch Library. Don't forget meters on the street are free at 6 p.m. and you can have 2.5 hrs free in the 3rd Street Garage with a validation of your ticket in the library.

TERRI MEEKS is a retired test engineer for F-16 support equipment. When she began her research she discovered most of her ancestors were immigrants and has traced her maternal line to Quebec. Terri is involved in FWGS as Vice President and teaches their Beginners' Genealogy Class. She is a community volunteer at the local Family History Center and translates Catholic Church records from French, Latin and Italian into English for the American Canadian Genealogical Society. Her husband, Dan, is also an avid genealogist and techno-geek.

Refreshments at 6 pm.

FW Library News

New Book Coming Soon

FWGS donated a new book to the Genealogical Unit which was accepted by Bryan McKinney. The book is RED RIVER COUNTY IN 1890; The Year of the Missing Census by Johnie Lee. The book is an attempt to provide researchers the names of citizens in the county around 1890. Look for it soon.

See page 3 for more.

October Meeting

Debbie Pearson, our FWGS

President, spoke at the last meeting and entitled her talk "I Ain't 'Fraid of No Ghosts." With apologies to the Ghost Buster's crew, she spoke about some of the On-Line resources available on cemetery records, grave stone pictures, and other ways to find death and burial records, without having to enter those "scary cemeteries".

Debbie explained the histories of both BillionGraves and Find A Grave, the two best sites available and both still free. She also explored the various search techniques and capabilities or features of each site. In addition, her hand-out gave many lesser known sites to explore, including the Grave Locator web site for US Dept of Veterans Affairs (VA). They control all the National Military cemeteries. see: <https://billiongraves.com/> <http://www.findagrave.com/> <http://gravelocator.cem.va.gov/>

From the President.....

Much to Be Thankful For:

I have had a wonderful 2 years as your president. FWGS has had interesting , meaningful programs, successful Seminars both years, interesting publications (our Journal Footprints and a new, expanded newsletter) and over 2 years, several gifts to the Fort Worth Library genealogy unit (books, equipment and money for acquisitions.) Many thanks to Suzanne Fritz and Rene Gomez for all their help with our general meetings, our Beginner's & CUG classes, and generally so much support. Many thanks to Donna Kruse for help and support at Southwest Regional for our BOD meetings. And now to Bryan McKinney for his new zeal for the genealogical unit and our genealogical community and societies. We are truly blessed after the successes of Betty Shankle to have another good leader there.

2016 New Officers: I tip my hat to the new Board of Directors who were just elected at the October meeting. New officers are President: Don Crews; VP: Terri Meeks; Treasurer: Roy Combrink; Secretary: Crystal Barth; Programs: Judy Ramos; Newsletters: Debbie Pearson; Membership & Footprints Editor: Rob Yoder; Historian/Archivist: Ed McCoy; Directors: Carol Reeves, Phil Morris, and Roy Noack. Installation will be at the November general meeting. Please come and support our society.

NEW BOOK for Researchers in Red River County

(FWGS recently purchased and donated this work to the FWL)

RED RIVER COUNTY IN 1890: The Year of the Missing Census

by Johnie Lee

Research on this book began about 2003, and dozens of sources have been searched in the years since. Among the sources searched were the tax records of 1890, as well as marriage and divorce records, deeds, criminal and civil court case files, survey records, marks and brands records, cemetery and death records, newspapers, probate files, commissioners court minutes and church records, just to name a few. The location of each source is noted, if additional information is needed.

The book, which contains 253 pages, will be a perfect bound card stock cover, with a few photos from the era. Also included will be business ads and letterheads of various businesses which were operating in the county at the time. The index contains over 5900 entries, and approximately 12,000 entries in the census section, listing people living in Red River County in 1890. Some of these individuals were found in as many as five different sources, all listed for future reference.

The first section of the book contains several stories about life in the county in 1890. Histories were written based on research done from the 1890 era, and include such topics as Statistics from the 1890 census, lists of businesses in the county, histories of roads, railroads, post offices, schools, polling places, newspapers, churches, fraternal organizations, among others.

To Order, send a check ($46.75) and mail to:

Beginner's Classes 2016

& Computer's Users Group (CUG)

Both classes will begin again on Saturday, January 30th.

NOTE: this is not our usual 4th Saturday. January marks the new year of eight Beginner's Classes held the first 8 months of the year and taught by FWGS VP, Terri Meeks. Beginner's classes are held at the Central Branch of the FWL at 500 W. 3rd St from 10:30 to 12:30. Classes are usually held in the Chappel room.

Computer User's Group meets on the same days in the Intel Lab at the Central Branch from 2:00- 4:00 p.m. and will be lead by FWGS Historian & Archivist, Ed McCoy. Ed will change the curriculum and order a bit in the new year. He is always looking for other volunteers to teach a two hour session.
