FEBRUARY GENERAL MEETING

Our February meeting will be Tuesday, February 28, 2017 in the Tandy Auditorium of the Central Branch Library. Judy Ramos, FWGS Program Director, will present: To Join or Not to Join—A Lineage Society. Time will be 6:30 p.m. - 7:45 p.m.

Refreshments begin at 6:00 p.m., with the meeting starting at 6:30.

You've heard of the Sons/Daughters of the American Revolution? But, did you know you can also join lineage societies for early sheriffs, teachers, or those accused of witchcraft? There is a lineage society for almost everyone. Judy will introduce you to some well-known and lesser known lineage groups & explain what every genealogist should consider.

JUDY RAMOS is a member of 11 lineage organizations. In 2016, she received the M.W. Cox Historical Research Award from the Daughters of the Republic of Texas (DRT) and in 2013, received the national Spirit of 1812 award from the NSUSD 1812. Judy is a Corpus Christi, Texas native, but traces her roots around the globe. She has written for Everett Generations and Alabama Pioneers websites. She also writes for "Crossroads," the magazine of the Utah Genealogical Society. Judy is a former newspaper, television, and radio reporter and currently works in public relations when she is not working on genealogy.

JANUARY MEETING

Terri Meeks brought a most informative & interesting program on the effects weather played in the lives of our ancestors. She covered droughts, tornados, floods, ice & record snowfalls as far back as the 1700's. She gave an example of several people who all had the same death date & place but lived so far from the state mentioned. Turns out, they all died in a flood while traveling on the Mississippi! Newspapers uncovered the pin point of how these disparate lives came together for one point in history! Terri cautioned us to dig deeper to flesh out the "bones" with more stories & history in our research.

PARKING IS EASY!

Meters are FREE at 6 PM. Park FREE in the 3rd Street Garage (1block E. from the library door) for 2 ½ hours with your ticket validated in the library.

From the President.....

President's Welcome

Welcome to a New Year in Genealogy! We hope you have started off this new year by joining us again at FWGS. Unfortunately, some of you have not. Right now, Rob Yoder, Footprints editor, informs me, that while the February issue of Footprints is ready to print and mail, he cannot mail it! We have not received enough renewals to meet the US Postal Service minimum for our Bulk Mail permit. The Board and officers try to be good stewards of your funds and of this society, so we try to find discounts and save money where we can. We certainly do not want to lose our Bulk Mail permit.

If you have delayed your renewal or forgotten, would you please send it in now. If you have chosen not to renew, would you drop us a line or email and let us know. If there is something we can do better, let us know that too.

Judy Ramos, Program Director, did a fabulous job last year planning interesting and informative programs. She is hard at work right now on 2017. [The January meeting was well attended, THANK YOU to Terri Meeks and her weather talk.] In fact, Judy almost has the entire year planned. Look on our web site soon; the entire year will be there. Free meetings are another of your perks for being a member. Please come and avail yourself of this education. We would love to meet you!

DON CREWS, President FWGS 2017

Note the date has been changed from Feb 3rd to 17th.

FREEDMAN'S BANK? FREEDMAN'S BUREAU?

Did you know these were actually two different sets of records? The names are confusing, but they are separate databases. For African Americans, these are two of the most useful records to research ancestors after the Civil War.

FREEDMAN'S BANK is actually the Freedman's Savings and Trust Company. This institution was set up after the Civil War to help African American soldiers and freed slaves bank their finances. It only lasted a decade with its failure in 1874. Records exist on Family Search, Heritage Quest, & Ancestry from 1864-1871.

In NYC a few European immigrants deposited too. Records can establish full names, maiden names, residency, & some familial relationships.

FREEDMAN'S BUREAU was actually The Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, & Abandoned Lands established on 3 March 1865 by Congressional Act and administered by the War Department for benefit of freed slaves, refugees, and also tracks abandoned or seized lands during the War. These were not financial records per se, but dealt with health/hospital matters, clothing, relief, even court records, letters, and census type information. These can be a wealth of information for displaced families after freedom. Ancestry has many of the state bureaus ranging 1863-1878. NARA has them on microfilm too.

U.S. Colored Troops Military Service Records, 1863-1865

These are compiled service records for Union volunteers. Lincoln did not approve use of Black troops until 1863 and by the close of the war there were about 175 regiments composed of 178,000 African-American troops. Ancestry & NARA have these records. Fold3 has some too.

US Slave Narratives, 1936-1938

This was a US WPA project. It consists of 2,300 first-person accounts of slavery and 500 black and white photographs! Available on Ancestry, Library of Congress & various other web sites. (Do a Google Search) Many recordings exist as well as printed copies.

Family Search.org has a very informative WIKI on African American Research :

https://familysearch.org/wiki/en/African_American_Genealogy

Ancestry.com has learning opportunities too. Here is a link to their Guide to African American Research:

NARA LUNCHTIME LECTURE FEB 17:

Highlighting African American

History at NARA

Slave manifests, census records, court documents, and other National Archive resources highlight the rich history of the African American experience. Come to learn more about these records. See page 2 for more on this class.
